

“We have now become the new, better standard for funeral service in our market, we know it and, more importantly, our community is now realizing it. I can say without hesitation, Life Celebration has saved my family’s business; they have been a blessing to us, our employees and the families we serve.”

“Through the training of Life Celebration and after working with Jim Cummings, our eyes were opened to the concept that we are providing experiences and transforming the customer’s expectations of funeral homes. Licensed directors who have had twenty years’ experience will tell me how refreshing it is to learn a new, better way to engage families during this difficult time.”
